

6516204797.txt

As a person who enjoys the choices that XM offers me I am offended that the FCC is taking steps to take away my right of choice. I personally pay for XM. I travel extensively for business and pleasure and find the Traffic and weather to be instrumental in me being able to plan out my trips. I hope the FCC decides to vote with their conscience of what the people want and not with the bankroll that lobbyist present. Thank You.
Brent Stufft